

18th MARCO LUCHETTA INTERNATIONAL PRESS AWARD

The “Luchetta, Ota, D’Angelo, Hrovatin Foundation for child war victims” has organized the eighteenth edition of the Premio Luchetta in memory of the death of Marco Luchetta, Alessandro Ota and Dario D’Angelo. The three journalists were killed by a grenade in Mostar while working on a special report on child war victims in the Balkans. The Prize also commemorates the death of Miran Hrovatin, the cameraman who was killed in Mogadishu together with journalist Ilaria Alpi.

The Award is reserved for journalists and photoreporters who have distinguished themselves on the scene by dealing with the difficult theme of violence and oppression inflicted on the most defenceless victims: children. The goals and scope of the contest are in line with the spirit that has inspired the activity of the Foundation, which has hosted and provided medical care for children coming from all over the world and suffering from injuries and diseases that cannot be treated in their countries.

All entries must have been published on an accredited official newspaper, TV channel or news website. Entries, no more than 3 per journalist, shall be submitted online (see articles 2, 3, 4 and 5) and must include:

- 1) short summary of the work;
- 2) short professional CV;
- 3) Entry Form containing the author’s full details.

Works not dealing with the theme of the competition or incomplete submissions will be deemed ineligible.

2021 COMPETITION RULES

Art.1) LUCHETTA AWARD SECTIONS

TV NEWS

Awarded to the journalist (correspondent or on-the-scene reporter) for the best video report, up to 8 minutes (prize 3,000.00 Euros).

ITALIAN PRESS

Awarded to the journalist for the best article published on Italian dailies or periodicals, also on-line (prize 3,000.00 Euros).

REPORTAGE

Dedicated to Alessandro Ota, the prize is awarded to the journalist (correspondent or on-the-scene reporter) for the best in-depth video report, up to 80 minutes (prize 3,000.00 Euros).

INTERNATIONAL PRESS

Dedicated to Dario D’Angelo, the prize is awarded to the journalist for the best non-Italian article published on a periodical or daily, also on-line (prize 3,000.00 Euros).

PHOTOGRAPHY

Dedicated to Miran Hrovatin, the prize is awarded to the photoreporter for the best photo- graph published on a periodical or daily, also on-line, accompanying an article or caption (prize 3,000.00 Euros).

Art.2) PARTICIPATION Participation in the competition is free. All entries must be published on an accredited official newspaper, TV channel or news website. The works not dealing with the theme of the competition or incomplete submissions shall not be accepted.

Art.3) PARTICIPATION INSTRUCTIONS Entrants must sign up on-line at www.premioluchetta.com (click on Notice of competition and Registration, then click on the button "sign up now" and fill out the Entry Form).

Forms that do not contain a short summary of the work, its title as published or broadcast, a short professional CV and section of the Award selected, shall not be accepted.

Art.4) ELIGIBLE ENTRIES Any work that has been published, broadcast or disseminated between 2 March 2020 and 21 March 2021. Each participant can submit no more than three works (articles, photos or videos). The authors of non-Italian works may be asked to provide translation or audio to text transcription in English.

Art.5) SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES

All works must be sent via email at segreteria@premioluchetta.it. Participants shall send heavy files via Wettransfer or Dropbox or regular mail to the following address:

*Prandi Comunicazione & Marketing
Premio Giornalistico Internazionale Marco Luchetta
Via Cesare Battisti 1 - 34125 Trieste, Italia*

ARTICLES: articles must be submitted in digital format (.pdf or .jpg)

PHOTOS: photos must be sent in high resolution (300 dpi A4 .jpg) along with the .pdf of the original published article or caption.

VIDEOS: videos must be submitted in .mp4 or .mov formats

Art.6) DEADLINE All works must be submitted by Wednesday 31 March 2021. The works entered in the contest shall not be returned.

Art.7) JURY The Awards shall be assigned by irrevocable decision of the Jury consisting of qualified television and press journalists, this year chaired by journalist Alberto Matano.

Art.8) RELEASE Participation in the contest implies the full acceptance of the Competition Rules as well as the authorization (from the newspaper or TV channel or reproduction rights holder) to use the entries or part of them, free of charge, for information and promotional purposes (with reference to the Award) in TV programmes, press articles, websites or any other media without limits of space and time. Organizers undertake to mention the names of the authors of the works that may be used accordingly.

Art.9) LIABILITY Each author is personally responsible for the contents of the work submitted in the competition, thus relieving the organizers of any form of civil or criminal liability towards third parties.

Art.10) TAXATION The event does not belong to 'prize contests' as according to the provisions of the Italian Law article 6 section 1 Dpr 430/2001. As to Resolution n.8/1251 of 28/10/1976 no tax will be deducted at source. The winner is responsible for tax payment at the rates in force in his/her country of origin.

Art 11) PRIVACY Personal details provided upon entering the contest shall be collected and used in accordance with the Law in force and are necessary to take part in the contest. By providing us with this information you consent to your details being published pursuant to the law in force (GDPR, EU 2016/679 ).

Art.12) AUTHORIZATION Pursuant to art.96 and 97 l.633/1941 competitors authorize the publication and broadcast of the images portraying them, on the Premio Luchetta official website as well as on all other media and authorize the storage of the photos and videos in the Premio Luchetta archives and in those of the official photographers of the organization.