

20th MARCO LUCHETTA INTERNATIONAL PRESS AWARD BALKAN ROUTE CATEGORY / 1st EDITION

In memory of Marco Luchetta, Alessandro Saša Ota and Dario D'Angelo, who were killed by a grenade in Mostar while reporting on children victims of the Balkan war, and cameraman Miran Hrovatin, who was murdered in Mogadishu along with journalist Ilaria Alpi, the Luchetta, Ota, D'Angelo, Hrovatin Foundation establishes - on the 20th anniversary of the birth of the Marco Luchetta International Journalism Prize and the 20th anniversary of the Mostar and Mogadishu massacre - the first edition of the category dedicated to the Balkan Route.

The Award is reserved for journalists and photoreporters who have dealt with the difficult theme of violence and oppression inflicted on the most defenceless victims. All entries must have been published on an accredited official newspaper, TV channel or news website. Entries, no more than 3 per journalist, shall be submitted online by filling in the Entry Form containing the author's full details, a short cv, summary and link to the work.
